MEDIA COVERAGE

From the tip of the Panhandle and down through Miami, the University of Florida athletic program attracts statewide interest from newspapers, magazines, television, websites and radio stations. UF holds its fair share of the national spotlight too, as media outlets such as ESPN, USA Today and Sports Illustrated track the progress of not only the nationally ranked football team, but also the careers of the many Gator world-class athletes. Locally, more than dozen media outlets regularly cover the Gators. In addition to daily coverage from the local media, many of the state's larger papers such as the Orlando Sentinel, Palm Beach Post and the St. Petersburg Times employ beat writers who live in Gainesville year-round for the sole purpose of covering Gator teams. The UF Communications Department also helps student-athletes' hometown media follow the careers of Gators from their area.

ESPN AND THE SEC: BRING CONFERENCE ACTION TO THE NATION

The unprecedented contract between the Southeastern Conference and ESPN is now in its fourth season. As part of the contact, ESPN will air the SEC Gymnastics Championships. The contract also calls for ESPNU to air 25 additional SEC regular-season events. This includes the regular-season meeting between Florida and Auburn. This is the 14th consecutive season Florida gymnastics has made at least one appearance on an ESPN channel. This contract is set to run for 15 seasons, giving the conference unprecedented national exposure on the ESPN channels.

The league's regional television package will air four additional dual meets featuring the Gators – Jan. 11 at LSU, Feb. 8 versus Alabama and Feb. 16 at Georgia (all on Fox Sports Net) and Feb. 1 at Arkansas and Feb. 22 versus Kentucky (both on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast).

Florida makes its first appearance on the Pac 12 Network on March 16 when the dual meet at Utah airs live on the network.

Sun Sports Network, which reached 99 percent of Florida's cable homes, will air more than 100 UF events during the 2012-13 academic year. Included are two Gator meets – the Jan. 18 SEC home opener versus Missouri and the regular-season home finale versus Minnesota on March 1. All but one meet of the Gators' regular season will be broadcast in 2013.

In December of 2011, ESPN and NCAA announced an agreement to extend rights through the 2023-24 season. In this agreement, additional NCAA Championship events were added to the ESPN networks, including NCAA Gymnastics. ESPNU will cover the 2013 NCAA Championships, set for April 19-21 in Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles, Calif., on a tape-delayed basis. Both the NCAA Super Six team final and the individual event finals will stream live on ESPN3.

The impact Rhonda Faehn's made on the University of Florida gymnastics program is undeniable. In her 10 years as the Gators' head coach, the program has:

- Seven top-five NCAA Championship finishes, including the 2012 runner-up spot
- Won three (2007, 2010 and 2012) Southeastern Conference team titles
- Claimed seven NCAA Region team titles
- Established the top-10 team scores in school history and each team event record

When she accepted the Florida head coaching position in the late spring of 2002, Faehn (pronounced FAIN) saw a program with the potential to firmly establish itself among the nation's elite. She's made that vision a reality, as the Gators perform an exciting and high-level of gymnastics that consistently competes with the nation's best and brings new fans to the O'Connell Center.

Seven top-five NCAA finishes have been turned in by Faehn-led Gator teams, which includes equaling the program's highest NCAA finish by taking second in the 2012 Super Six. Florida has advanced to the NCAA Super Six in 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2012.

The Gators claimed seven of their last eight NCAA Region team titles, with their 2005 NCAA Southeast Region title being UF's first since 1997.

Florida has returned to success in the SEC Championships under Fahen. In 2007, Florida won the SEC team title - the sixth in the program's history, but its first since 1989. The Gators repeated as SEC champions again in 2010 and 2012. Gator athletes have earned All-SEC accolades 32 times and nine league individual titles went to Florida since 2007.

Under Faehn, 28 UF gymnasts have claimed a total of 100 All-America honors. Two have come away with NCAA titles in the last two seasons as freshman Kytra Hunter became the first Gator to win the NCAA all-around title in 2012. The vault title has gone to a Gator the last two years, with Marissa King earning UF's first NCAA event title since 1998 in the 2011 NCAA Individual Event Finals and Hunter claimed the 2012 title.

In the competitive arena, the Gators registered wins over some of the nation's top teams during the last 10 years, including victories over Alabama, Georgia, UCLA and Utah. Faehn also found success on the recruiting trail, as her classes are regarded among the nation's best, including the 2010, 2011 and 2012 classes that drew the No. 1 ranking.

After leading the 2007 Gator team to the No. 1 position in 11 of the 12 regular-season ranking periods, Faehn was named the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC) Coach of the Year. She is a five-time recipient of the NACGC Southeast Region Gymnastics Coach of the Year. She shared the 2003 honor and was again named the winner in 2005, 2007, 2010 and 2011. Faehn picked up the SEC Coach of the Year honor five of her 10 seasons (2006, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2012).

Faehn took over in May of 2002 as the sixth head coach for the Gator program. She brought experience at the sports' highest level to the Florida program. A member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic Team and an All-American while at UCLA, Faehn coached among the club and collegiate levels for nine years prior to joining UF.

Faehn joined the Florida program after spending four seasons (1999-02) at the University of Nebraska. She served as an assistant coach for the Huskers for three seasons before being elevated to Associate Head Coach in the fall of 2001. Four of the Huskers' five NCAA Super Six appearances were achieved with Faehn on the NU staff and during that time, the team twice posted Super Six finishes of fifth (2001 and '02) and took fourth at the 2000 event. The Cornhuskers also produced two-time NCAA champion Heather Brink during this period, when Brink claimed the NCAA all-around and vault crowns in 2000. Faehn was named the NACGC Assistant Coach of the Year in 2001. She also collected the South Central Assistant Coach of the Year honor in 2002 and shared the 2000 Region 3 Assistant Coach of the Year award. During her stay at NU, 11 athletes earned a total of 21 All-America awards.

She also was an assistant coach at the University of Maryland for the 1997 and '98 seasons. She was named the Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 1998 after playing a crucial role in the Terps qualifying for their first Southeast Regional meet in seven seasons. Maryland improved from 11-18 in her first season to 22-18 and a seventh-place Southeast Regional finish in 1998.

Prior to joining Maryland, Faehn was head coach at the Lanco Gymnastics Training Center in Lancaster, Pa., from 1994-96. At Lanco Gymnastics Training Center, Faehn organized a team program for levels four through 10. She was in charge of choreography for the beam and floor exercise and coached the level nine team to a state championship. Faehn has also served as a master staff member and clinician at the Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa.

During her collegiate career at UCLA (1990-92), Faehn earned All-America second-team honors in both the all-around and balance beam at the 1992 NCAA Championships. She was a member of the 1992 All-Pacific-10 team and shared that season's conference uneven bars title. Faehn began her coaching career as a Bruins' student assistant from 1992-94. She graduated from UCLA in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in history.

Faehn's club gymnastics resume includes competitions at the sport's highest level. Faehn, the first alternate to the 1988 U.S. Olympic team, was a four-year member of the U.S. National Team (1985-88). She is the 1987 and '88 U.S. vault champion, scoring a perfect 10.0 at both the 1988 U.S. Olympic Trials and the 1988 U.S. National Championships. In 1987, she was the highest U.S. finisher at the World Championships, placing 19th in the all-around. Faehn, who trained under world-famous coach Bela Karolyi, was a member of the U.S.'s gold-medal team at the 1987 Pan American Games, where she took eighth in the all-around and fourth in the vault.

In the summer of 2006, Faehn and Jeremy Bayon were married. They have two sons. Noah Émile Bayon was born in January of 2008 and Isaiah Freedom Bayon arrived in November of 2010. The family resides in Gainesville.

"Rhonda was one of my most dedicated and disciplined gymnasts. I enjoyed coaching her as she developed into a world-class gymnast. She has been the national champion on the vault and a member of the U.S. National Team. Rhonda has a high moral standard and is driven by her goals. Those traits she showed as a gymnast are still present today. Rhonda has already proven her expertise and high technical coaching level in her previous positions. I have absolutely no doubt that she will be one of the sport's most successful coaches. She continues to be one of my favorites - I wish her the best of luck."

–Bela Karolyi

"Rhonda Faehn possesses all of the qualities necessary to be a successful head coach, including the one I feel the most important, a passionate understanding of the importance of coaching the "person" before the "athlete"."

- UCLA Head Gymnastics Coach Valorie Kondos Field

Rhonda Faehn is congratulated by Bela Karolyi after her perfect 10.0 vault at the 1987 U.S. Gymnastics Championships.

ADRIAN BURDE
ASSISTANT COACH

Adrian Burde (pronounced bur-DAY) enters his seventh season with the Florida gymnastics program in the fall of 2012. He coaches vault and tumbling, as well as aids in recruiting and team conditioning.

Burde has coached vault and tumbling for the Gators since 2011. A Gator has claimed the last two NCAA vault titles (Marissa King/2011 and Kytra Hunter/2012). Florida has also taken a pair of Southeastern Conference titles in that time (Ashanée Dickerson, 2011 floor exercise and Hunter, 2012 vault). Florida led all teams in the last two seasons with five advancing to the NCAA floor exercise final and UF's total of four in NCAA vault finals is the second-highest in that span. Senior Maranda Smith shared second overall in the final 2011 NCAA floor standings. Florida has ranked as the nation's No. 1 vault team for 18 of the last 23 ranking periods (spanning to 2011 season) and was the top-ranked floor team for the entire 2011 season.

Burde coached the Gator uneven bar performers when he joined the program and his impact was evident early. The 2007 Gators opened the season with the team's then third-highest uneven bars team total ever of 49.575 at the Super Six Challenge. The UF bar record was reset to 49.70 versus Kentucky on Feb. 16. The Gators held the No. 1 position in the national bar rankings for the final nine weeks of the regular season. Florida was again among the national uneven bars leaders in Burde's second season. Florida's total of 49.625 set in the Gators' Link to Pink meet was the nation's highest uneven bars total of the 2008 season and ranks third all-time for the Gators. In 2009, Florida stood among the top three for nine weeks in the national bar rankings. Two Gators advanced to the 2009 NCAA bar final, with then sophomore Alicia Goodwin sharing third overall – matching the second-highest UF bar finish in the program's history. All-America honors were earned by three Gator bar performers in 2010, with two advancing to the event final.

His peers recognized Burde as the 2007 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women (NACGC) Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year. In 2011, he shared the NACGC Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year honor with fellow Gator assistant Robert Ladanyi.

Burde joined UF in June of 2006 after working as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska since 2001. At Nebraska, he served as the vault and floor coach and conditioning coordinator. While there, he was named the 2003 National Assistant Coach of the Year by the NACGC and the 2003 South Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

At Nebraska, Burde helped lead the Cornhuskers to four NCAA Super Six team finals (2002, '03, '05, '06). He saw NU athletes earn 19 All-America honors in the floor and vault events. It was at Nebraska that Burde coached Canadian Richelle Simpson, the 2003 NCAA all-around and floor exercise champion. He served as her coach at the 2003 World Championships in Anaheim, Calif., and the 2003 Pan American Games. Burde and UF Head Coach Rhonda Faehn both were members of the Nebraska coaching staff for the 2002 season.

Prior to working at Nebraska, Burde coached the girl's Level 10 and International Elite programs for the Bart Conner Gymnastics Academy in Norman, Okla. There, he coached U.S. National Team members Larissa Stewart and Lori Wynn.

Burde began his coaching career in his native Romania in 1994, where he was a Junior National team coach until 1999. He coached the Romanian Junior National Team with current UF Assistant Coach Robert Ladanyi. The two have known each other since their competitive gymnastic days.

Burde's international coaching experience is a great benefit to the Gators. He coached Romanian Alexandra Eremia from 1997-99, who later was a member of the 2004 Olympic gold medal team and was awarded the bronze medal on the balance beam. Burde also coached Florica Leonida during the same time, who along with Eremia, earned a team silver medal at the 2003 World Championships.

Burde was a member of the Romanian Junior National Team from 1988 to 1992. He joined the French club team Aix les Bains in 1992 and captured the all-around title at the 1994 French national meet. While competing, Burde also helped coach younger gymnasts at the club.

Burde is a 1996 graduate of the Romanian National School of Coaching, where he received a degree in International High Level Gymnastics.

He married the former Darcie Lee in the summer of 2007. They welcomed Isabella to their family in August of 2012.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ROBERT LADANYI
ASSISTANT COACH

Robert Ladanyi (pronounced La-DA-knee) is in his eighth season as an assistant coach at Florida. He coaches the Gator uneven bar performers and also shares the team's conditioning coach duties.

The 2012 season saw Florida make five additions to the Gators' All-Time Top 20 scores list at 9.95 (Alaina Johnson, three times; Mackenzie Caquatto and Ashanée Dickerson). Both Caquatto and Johnson advanced to the NCAA bars final. Johnson claimed the Southeastern Conference bar title with her winning mark of 9.925. During the course of the season, Florida ranked No. 1 in the final eight national uneven bars rankings of 2012.

Under Ladanyi, the Gators have ranked No. 1 in 15 of the last 18 national uneven bars rankings (spanning to 2011 season), turned in eight individual bar marks of 9.95 or better and seen the Gators claim a total of four All-America honors on the bars.

Ladanyi coached vault and the team on their tumbling skills when he first joined the Gator coaching staff. The upgrade was immediately seen in his first season in 2006 as the Gators gained a reputation among the nation's collegiate programs for their difficulty throughout the floor lineup. Florida's 12 representatives from 2006-10 in NCAA floor exercise final competition is tops among the nation's gymnastics programs.

In 2008, Florida sent four to the NCAA floor final (Amanda Castillo, Corey Hartung, Ashley Reed and Nicola Willis) with Willis leading the Gators by cumulating her UF career with a third-place finish. Half of Florida's floor lineup earned All-America honors in 2006 and 2007, with Savannah Evans (2006 and 2007), Hartung (2006 and 2007) and Reed (2007) advancing to the NCAA Event Final. Hartung finished her UF career in 2009 by taking third in the NCAA floor final. A pair of Gator freshmen – Marissa King and Ashanée Dickerson advanced to the 2010 NCAA floor final.

The Gators also were successful in vault under Ladanyi's supervision. He saw seven additions to the program's all-time top-10 vault team totals list from 2007 to 2010. A Gator took at least a share of nine vault event titles during the course of the 2006 campaign. Two Gators advanced to the 2007 NCAA vault event final - Castillo and Evans. A Gator claimed at least a share of all but two 2008 regular-season vault titles and Reed won the SEC and NCAA Southeast Region vault titles. In 2009, Florida gymnasts claimed five regular-season vault titles and Maranda Smith advanced to the NCAA vault final. King and Dickerson also represented UF in the 2010 NCAA vault final.

His peers recognized Ladanyi and fellow Gator assistant Adrian Burde as the 2011 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women (NACGC) Southeast Region Assistant Coaches of the Year.

Ladanyi came to UF from the Mihaiuc Gymnastics Academy (MGA) in Webster, Texas, where he had coached since 2002. Three gymnasts advanced to the National Junior Olympic Championships during his time at MGA. He also was an assistant coach at the Academy of Gymnastics and Dance in Las Vegas, Nev., in 2001-02.

Before coaching in the United States, Ladanyi was head coach of CSM in Baia Mare, Romania (1992-97). Part of his responsibilities included coaching the Romania Junior National team from 1994-97. Three gymnasts he coached were selected for the 1999 Romanian Senior National team, while Monica Sabou was the alternate for the 2001 Romanian World Team. Ladanyi then left his native Romania to become the head coach at S.G. Amsicora in Cagliari, Italy from 1997-01.

Ladanyi graduated from the Romanian National School of Coaching in 1994 with a degree in International High Level Gymnastics. He trained with the Romanian National Team where he was an all-around competitor who excelled in parallel bars and rings before an injury forced him to retire from competition at age 19.

Ladanyi has two daughters, Gabriella, who was born in December of 2004 and Laila, who arrived in May of 2009. Gabby is an aspiring gymnast herself, taking the 2012 Texas Level 6 Junior A1 state uneven bars title.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Jeremy Miranda
VOLUNTEER COACH

Volunteer Assistant Coach Jeremy Miranda provides his innovative and artistic touch to the Gator gymnastics routines again this season. Miranda oversees all creative aspects musically and choreographically for the Gator floor routines.

Prior to joining the Gator program in the summer of 2007, Miranda worked with the University of Nebraska women's gymnastics team for the 2006 and 2007 seasons. His choreography and assistance to the coaching staff helped the Huskers to the Super Six Championship both seasons. In addition, Miranda also served as club coach for the Nebraska School of Gymnastics from 2005-07, coaching classes ranging from preschool to elite.

Miranda also spent several summers as master staff instructor at the world-renowned Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa. Additionally, Miranda has served on the coaching staff at multiple summer camps and clinics across the country.

A notable gymnast in his own right, Miranda was a level 10 gymnast who culminated his gymnastics career with a co-national championship finish on the floor exercise at Junior Olympic Nationals in 2005, as well as an eighth-place finish on the vault.

A native of Chamberlain, S.D., Miranda received his bachelor's degree in Dance Performance from the University of Florida in the summer of 2010. He currently dances and choreographs professionally in New York City and has appeared in many live stage productions such as CATS, A Chorus Line and West Side Story as well as TV appearances on Gossip Girl and SMASH. He most recently served as dance captain for Norwegian Cruise Lines touring worldwide.

Miranda has one sister, Jennifer (24), and one brother, Joshua (22). His mother, Bernie, works as the head Postmaster in Oacoma, S.D., and his father, Tom, is a professional hunter featured regularly on ESPN Outdoors.

"Bridgey" (as she is often called) has been in the gym since she was 2 and half. She says training with her sister, Mackenzie, is the most comfortable she can be when in the gym. The gymnast Bridgey pretended to be when she was young? It was Mackenzie. The pair is each other's No. 1 supporter. Loves spending time outdoors, which includes fishing. Always has eye out for healthy and delicious recipes as she enjoys cooking. Likes outings to fun activities with friends & family. Usually plays the role of planner for these events as this taps her organizational talents. Loves to reorganize and make sure everything in her room is in place..

Caquatto, or "Macko," started gymnastics when she was 2. But she really fell in love with gymnastics during the 1996 Olympics — when it went from a pastime to a goal-setting drive. Her proudest moment so far is going to the 2010 World Championships in the Netherlands. Her younger sister, Bridgette is also on the team. Mackenzie says Bridgey keeps her motivated and grounded. She loves her mom's spaghetti, as part of her father's 100-percent Sicilian heritage. One of her competitions took her to Venice, which she loved. Her competitions have taken her all over the world, but she longs to visit Australia.

The 2010 & 2011 NCAA Southeast Region Gymnast of the Year remembers watching Gator gymnastics meets since she was 8 years old. Performing in front of loud, large crowds—Dickerson idolized the gymnasts she saw. Now living the dream, she says performing on the mat is ten times better than cheering in the stands. Keeps in touch with the young gymnasts from her club, who may also dream of one day competing in the O'Connell Center. She prefers taking pictures versus signing autographs because it takes her longer to sign her name. Born and raised a short drive away in Jacksonville, she says the best thing about the annual Florida-Georgia football game is tailgating.

A life-long resident of the Sunshine State, Morgan is quite familiar with the Orlando-area theme parks. She could play tour guide for any out-of-town visitors. Partial to parks with a roller coaster. Favorite part is the upward climb when there is that slight moment of doubt that perhaps this wasn't a good idea just before hitting the crest. That thought is quickly dismissed with the rush and thrill of the roller coaster's drop. Mom makes many great dishes, but Morgan's favorite is her chicken pot pie. Also fan of dad's maple-glazed salmon grilled on cedar planks. Mom was a gymnast when she was younger and thought it would be a good outlet for the very active three-year old Morgan. Now that gymnasts' talent which was so evident after just one session is the Gators' first to win the NCAA all-around title. Kytra was ready to commit to the Gators when the plane touched down in Florida and she saw palm trees. An added bonus? All the orange she could wear – her favorite color. Kytra is always browsing the web doing online shopping and considers herself a fashionista – dressing in solid colors but adding pizzazz with funky jewelry or shoes like her leopard-print sequined sneakers. You can't miss Kytra when she rides her black scooter, which she personally designed with bright pink flames and skulls. Hooked on seafood and sushi, but don't even think about giving her Brussels sprouts.

The parents of the 2012 Southeastern Conference uneven bars champion started her on gymnastics as a change of pace from her older siblings, all soccer players. It was love at first tumbling pass. Johnson took a break from the mat and uneven bars to swim, but ultimately gymnastics won out. Johnson was home-schooled from fourth through eighth grade and said it was nice being on her own schedule. What happened on June 13, 2008? Well, in Tyler, Texas, the mayor declared that date "Alaina Johnson Day" after she earned a spot in the U.S. Olympic Trials. Loves going to Lake Tyler with her friends where they tube, knee board and, of course, tan.

While the Stephen O'Connell Center is now home to King, the former Olympian cited the O2 Arena in London and the Beijing National Stadium—home of the 2008 Summer Olympics—as her other favorite gym venues. She received a best of luck phone call from her mother in England the morning she won the 2011 NCAA vault title. She loves ice cream, any sort. Carried the 2012 Olympic Torch this summer as her home country prepared to play host to the Summer Games. Stageberg likes actor Luke Wilson because he reminds her of her own dad. One of her favorite movies is Tommy Boy. Participating in the 2008 U.S. Olympic Trials brought out a passel of emotions. She says it was the happiest, most memorable, scariest and the most fun meet she ever participated in. Besides gymnastics, she has a passion for art and has sketchbooks at home. Although gymnastics takes up most her time, she has sketches of some animals, fruit baskets, trees and flowers…but no people, which she admits is not her forté.

Kiersten's middle name is Kumi, which comes from her Japanese heritage and means "forever beautiful." Born in Panama, but she's a true citizen of Colorado. At home you'd probably find her cruising around on an ATV or fishing in a mountain spring. This gymnast did some serious damage with the catapult she built in her high school engineering class, shooting it more than 90 feet perfectly. In the summer of 2011, she joined her brother and father on an Engineers Without Borders trip to Nicaragua where they helped plan a bridge to be built. Has a self-proclaimed obsession with ghosts but has never had her own supernatural encounter.

GYMNASTICS SCORING

In collegiate team competition, six gymnasts perform on each of the four apparatus. The five best scores per event are added together to make up the cumulative team total.

At least two judges are required to evaluate an athlete's performance. Choices of elements "up to the competition level" are defined by basic requirements for each event. The scores are averaged to arrive at a final mark.

GENERAL DEDUCTIONS

Fall from apparatus or on floor	0.5
Stepping out of bounds (floor exercise)	0.1
Heavy brush of feet, or hand touch on floor	0.3
Presentation to judge omitted (before or after exercise)	0.1
Intermediate swing (bars)	0.3
Concentration pauses longer than two seconds	0.1
Coach blocking judges' view	0.2
Competing out of order (taken from the team score)	0.1
"Up to the competition level" deduction	0.1

Other deductions are taken, usually up to and no more than 0.3, for such things as bent arms and legs, or separation of legs.

VAULT

Vaulting requires speed, quickness and explosive power. Vaults are divided into three categories: handspring, Tsukahara and round-off entry. Deductions are taken for technical errors in the areas of preflight (approach to the horse) and after flight (distance and height) from the horse to point of landing.

2013 Gator Vaults

Vault/Gymnasts	Value
Yurchenko layout with full twist: Bianca Dancose-Giambattisto, Ashanée Dickerson, Bridgette Caquatto, Mackenzie Caquatto, Alaina Johnson, Dali Lemezan, Lauren Rose, Jamie Shisler, Bridget Sloan, Rachel Spicer, Randy Stageberg, Kiersten Wang	10.0
Yurchenko layout with one and a half twist: Kytra Hunter	10.0
Yurchenko layout with a half twist: Morgan Frazier	10.0
Tsukahara layout with full twist: Marissa King	10.0
Tsukahara layout with 1 ½ twist: Marissa King	10.0

Gymnastics skills are divided into different categories (A,B,C,D,E), with E containing the exceptionally difficult skills. An asterisk denotes E-level skills (*).

UNEVEN BARS

At least two elements must be on the low bar. Good composition includes elements showing great amplitude, several bar changes, grip changes and direction changes. Pauses for concentration, intermediate swings and uncharacteristic elements are to be avoided. After a fall, the gymnast must resume the exercise within 30 seconds.

BALANCE BEAM

The beam routine should be composed of elements from the following groups: acrobatic elements with and without flight, strength elements such as turns, leaps, body waves and running steps. Special requirements of this event are an acrobatic series, a gymnastics series, a full turn and a leap.

The balance beam is 16 feet long, four feet high and only four inches wide. The entire routine must last between 30 seconds and one and a half minutes. A bell is rung at the 1:20 mark of the routine. If the gymnast does not complete the routine at the end of one and a half minutes, an overtime penalty of .10 is deducted from the score. There is no undertime deduction. Requirements for the beam (failure to complete requirements results in .2 start value deduction) include:

1) Acro series: Minimum of two (2) flight elements, one element must be a minimum of C with or without hand support (both elements must start and finish on the beam).
2) Dance series with a minimum of two (2) elements, one element C or higher.
3) A leap or jump requiring 180 degree split (this may be part of the dance series).
4) Minimum of 360 degree turn. No hand support permitted.
5) Minimum of C dismount or B dismount proceeded by and directly connected to any C element (acro or dance).

Randy Stageberg: Planche mount, front aerial to back handspring, flip flop layout step out into full twist dismount

Kiersten Wang: Cat leap into front aerial, flip flop layout step out into full twist dismount

FLOOR EXERCISE

The composition of the exercise must show harmony between gymnastics and acrobatic elements, create dynamic changes in rhythm and levels and show versatile use of the entire floor area. The exercise must contain two different acrobatic series and one series must contain at least two saltos. The musical accompaniment is to be instrumental only. The exercise must last between 1:10 and 1:30 minutes. The "competition level" for floor exercise are defined by the basic standards (failure to meet competition level is a .10 deduction):

1) One acro series with two (2) saltos (same or different).
2) Three different saltos within the exercise.
3) Dance series with a minimum of two (2) elements (leaps - one must be off of one foot that includes a 180 degree split; jumps)

Jan. 6

The Gators, ranked No. 3 in the GymInfo preseason poll, opened the 2012 season with a 196.025-194.675 road meet win at Reynolds Coliseum versus North Carolina State. Kytra Hunter became the fourth Gator freshman in the last 25 seasons to claim the season opening all-around win with a total of 39.30, as well as the floor exercise (9.90) title. Florida showcased two other freshmen, with Kiersten Wang in the vault and uneven bars lineup and Rachel Spicer competing in vault, beam and floor. Sophomore Alaina Johnson claimed her sixth collegiate uneven bars title (9.875), and juniors Marissa King and Ashanée Dickerson shared the balance beam title (9.825).

Jan. 13

The No. 3 Gators opened home action with a 196.175-191.875 win over the University of Illinois-Chicago in the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. Four different Gators nabbed apparatus victories as Florida swept UIC for the top three spots in vault, bars, beam and floor. Freshman Kytra Hunter earned her second consecutive all-around (38.925) and floor exercise (9.925) crowns while junior Ashanée Dickerson added a vault title (9.90) to her 2012 wins. Freshman Kytra Hunter claimed at least a share of four event titles, including collecting her third consecutive all-around crown (39.475), along with the vault (9.925), bars (9.875) and beam (9.85) wins. The all-around win streak made Hunter the first Gator since junior Ashanée Dickerson in 2010 to open her premiere collegiate season with wins in the first three meets. Junior Marissa King shared the bars title with Hunter, and also claimed a share of the floor title (9.85) along with Dickerson.

Jan. 27

No. 1 Florida wrapped up its regular-season Southeastern Conference slate with a 197.525-196.825 win over No. T-3 Georgia in front of a Stephen C. O'Connell Center crowd of 6,134. It was the 18th time in the last 20 Florida and Georgia meetings (starting with the 2006 dual meet) that one of the programs brought a No. 1 ranking into the competition, and the rivalry lived up to the hype as the energized Gators swept all five event titles. Kytra Hunter pieced together a 39.675 all-around performance for her fourth all-around win of the season and third-best all-around total in the nation. She also claimed top honors for her vault (9.95) and floor (9.95) performances. Marissa King used a 9.925 for the bars title, and also earned the beam crown with a 9.95 mark.

March 4

The No. 1 Florida gymnastics team used a come-from-behind effort to take a 196.95-196.825 win at No. 6 Nebraska. The Cornhuskers led the meet through each of the first three rotations, and owned a slender 0.05 lead as Florida headed to the balance beam for its final event. The team responded with a solid 49.325 beam total. Three Gator All-Americans turned in top totals in the all-around. Sophomore Alaina Johnson equaled her collegiate-best of 39.675 to take her second all-around title of the season, and junior Marissa King finished second after upping her collegiate-best to 39.65. Fellow junior Ashanée Dickerson was third with her season-best total of 39.625. Johnson also claimed vault (9.90), uneven bars (9.95) and balance beam (9.925) titles. She shared the beam victory with King and the bars victory with Dickerson. King and freshman Kytra Hunter shared the floor title at 9.95.

March 24

For the second time in three years, No. 1 Florida claimed the Southeastern Conference title in front of 7,170 at The Arena at Gwinnett Center in Duluth, Ga.. The Gators posted a 197.15 to take the program's eighth overall league crown. Defending meet and NCAA champion Alabama was second at 196.775, followed by Georgia (196.575), LSU (196.425), Kentucky (194.35), Arkansas (194.175) and Auburn (194.10).

Florida opened the competition on the balance beam, tallying a 49.05 before moving on to the floor exercise, where the Gators scored a 49.20 after a few slight missteps. The team rocked the vault exercise, posting a 49.525 – the evening's highest total of any event by any team. Freshman Kytra Hunter nabbed the vault title with a near-perfect 9.975. Florida, the nation's top-ranked team on the uneven bars, cruised through that event with a meet-high bars total of 49.375. Junior Alaina Johnson was the night's uneven bars (9.925) victor.

Hunter also picked up the all-around title at 39.625. She is the first Gator to claim the all-around win since Kristen Guise in 1995 and is the first Gator freshman to take the win since Elfi Schlegel in 1983. In the annual post-meet awards ceremony, Hunter was awarded the SEC Freshman of the Year award, and Rhonda Faehn received the SEC Co-Coach of the Year award, her third consecutive coach of the year honor. Hunter and Johnson were named to the All-SEC first team, and Caquatto and King were named to the All-SEC second team.

April 7

The No. 1 Gators earned the top seed for the NCAA Championships after claiming the Raleigh Regional meet title in front of 2,265 at Reynolds Coliseum on North Carolina State's campus. The Gators posted a 197.325, and Ohio State was second at 196.225 to claim the other NCAA Championships' berth. Florida was just edged for the session's top position by defending NCAA champion Alabama, 197.675-197.650. Arkansas also earned a spot in the Super Six after taking third at 197.15. Rounding out the Session II team results were Ohio State (196.525), Georgia (196.50) and Oregon State (196.475).

Only one NCAA title is determined in NCAA semifinal competition – the all-around- and that crown went to Gator freshman Kytra Hunter. She used a collegiate-best total of 39.725 to become the first Gator to win the NCAA all-around, and just the ninth freshman in championship history to do so.

Six Gators earned a school-record total of 16 All-American honors in NCAA semifinal competition - Mackenzie Caquatto (uneven bars – first team), Ashanée Dickerson (floor exercise – first team, vault, all-around – second team), Amy Ferguson (floor exercise – second team), Alaina Johnson (all-around, uneven bars – first team; vault, balance beam, floor exercise – second team), Kytra Hunter (all-around, vault, floor exercise – first team; uneven bars, balance beam – second team); Marissa King (vault – first team)

April 21

Alabama edged Florida just .075 in a thrilling NCAA Super Six team final to take its second consecutive and sixth overall NCAA Championship with a 197.85, while the Gators finished as the runner-up with 197.775. UCLA took third at 197.75, while Stanford (197.50), Utah (197.375) and Arkansas (196.30) rounded out the field. The tenth difference between teams No. 1 – 3 was the closest NCAA Championship team final in the 31-year history of the meet.

The Gators drew the Olympic Rotation for the meet, opening with a strong 49.475 on the vault. Ashanée Dickerson, who equaled her collegiate vault best of 9.95 for the sixth time in her career and the second time of the season, led the team, and two other Gators earned vault scores of 9.9 or better – Marissa King (9.925) and Alaina Johnson (9.90). On the uneven bars, Florida earned a 49.425 as Johnson posted a season-best 9.95 and Mackenzie Caquatto turned in a 9.90 for her routine.

At the midway point of the meet, the Gators trailed the Tide by 0.175, but Florida equaled its top balance beam total of 49.475 to put the team in position to challenge for the title. Junior Randy Stageberg started off the Gators' beam set by setting her collegiate-best of 9.90. Johnson equaled her collegiate-best of 9.925 to lead UF on the event and King also posted a 9.90. On floor, Stageberg posted her second collegiate-best of the day, equaling her top mark of 9.90. Freshman Kytra Hunter anchored the lineup with a 9.925 to add to the team's final 49.40. Though Florida turned in prime performances on the four events, Alabama's 49.500 on its last event – the balance beam – left the Gators just short of the NCAA Championship title.

Three of Florida's event totals ranked as its highest ever in NCAA Championships' competition – vault (49.475), bars (49.425) and beam (49.475). UF's 49.40 on floor equals its second-highest in Super Six action. Florida's total of 197.775 was its highest-ever in NCAA Championships' competition. The runner-up finish equals Florida's highest NCAA placing finish, as the Gators also finished second in 1998.

April 22

Five Gators competed in the individual event finals on the last day of the NCAA Championships. Kytra Hunter became the fifth gymnast in the 31-year history of the NCAA Gymnastics Championships to win multiple NCAA event titles as a freshman as she added a vault title (9.875) to her all-around title from the semifinal competition. Junior Marissa King, the 2011 NCAA vault champion, also competed in the vault session. She took fifth with her average of 9.7875. Sophomores Mackenzie Caquatto and Alaina Johnson each appeared in the NCAA uneven bars final. Caquatto tied for sixth at 9.825 and Johnson took eighth at 9.4875. Hunter joined junior Ashanée Dickerson in the floor competition. Hunter tied for fourth place with a 9.925, while Dickerson shared sixth overall at 9.90.

May 2

Kytra Hunter is named the 2012 Honda Sports Award recipient for gymnastics, distinguishing her as the nation's top collegiate female athlete in the sport. The honor was based on the results of national balloting among all NCAA member schools as part of The Collegiate Women Sports Awards program, now in its 36th year.

Hunter is only the third freshman gymnast to collect the Honda Award and the first since Georgia's Hope Spivey in 1991. Hunter is the second Gator gymnast to receive the honor, as Ann Woods received the 1982 award.

#Individual event scores determined by adding team and individual competition scores together

@ - 1993 marked the first year of a two-day format of team competition. The top six teams from the first day advance to the "Super Six" competition.
Since 1999, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advance to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spots (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions are second team All-Americans. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition earn All-America first-team honors; the next eight earn All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors.

Florida's five in the 2007 NCAA Individual Event Finals set the program record for number of representatives (5) and final appearances (9). From left: Corey Hartung, Savannah Evans, Ashley Reed, Melanie Sinclair and Amanda Castillo.

Susan Hines scored her first 10.0 to win the 1996 NCAA Southeast Region vault competition. She earned a vault 10.0 a total of four times as a Gator - including twice at the 1998 NCAA Championships' site.

* - denotes All-America second team; ^ - IG denotes International Gymnast

Since 1999, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA's two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advance to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spot (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions are second team All-Americans. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition (results from both sessions combined) earned All-America first-team honors; the next eight earned All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors.

GATORS LINK TO PINK

As part of a Southeastern Conference initiative, the Jan. 25 dual meet is the seventh annual Gators Link to Pink event, where all teams will wear pink leotards in support of the fight against breast cancer. Last year's event raised over $5,000 for the local American Cancer Society chapter in Gainesville.

GATOR GYMNASTICS FAN SUPPORT

Florida is nationally recognized as a hotbed of collegiate gymnastics. The crowds are getting bigger each year at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center, with the Gators averaging more than 6,200 fans per meet in 2012 -- the nation's fourth-highest attendance average and the third-highest season average in the program's history.

Half of the program's top eight crowds have come in the last four seasons. The 2008 regular-season dual meet featuring then No. 1 Florida versus No. 2 Georgia drew a Gator gymnastics record crowd of 10,855. The 2010 Gators Link to Pink meet versus LSU drew the program's third-largest crowd of 9,198. The 2011 Gators Link to Pink meet drew the program's overall fifth-largest crowd (8,272). Florida's strong fan base played a big role in the Gators being awarded the 2010 NCAA Gymnastics Championships. The Gators will play host to NCAA action again in 2013 when the NCAA Southeast Region Championships are held in the O'Connell Center.

TOP 10 GYMNASTICS CROWDS

Crowd	Opponent	Date
10,855	Georgia	1-18-08
10,651	Alabama	2-10-89
9,198	Gators Link to Pink versus LSU	1-29-10
8,338	Georgia	1-27-06
8,272	Gators Link to Pink versus Penn State and NC State	1-28-11

7,486	NCAA Gymnastics Championships (event finals)	4-19-86
7,329	NCAA Gymnastics Championships (team)	4-18-86

The size of O'Connell Center gymnastics crowds continue to swell since the arrival of Rhonda Faehn for the 2003 season.

"When I was growing up, I came to Gator gymnastics meets and I thought about how exciting it must be to have the crowd cheering for you. Now that I am a Gator gymnast, the experience of competing in front of the O'Connell Center crowd is far better than I ever imagined. To come out of the Gator head and be greeted by the crowd is an incredible feeling. The support the Gator fans show really helps us perform. Thank you Gator fans!"

The Gators drew a program-record 10,855 fans for the 2008 dual meet featuring then-No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Georgia.
